Yoga Expert Session on International Yoga Day

NSS UNIT in collaboration with the department of MCA successfully organized the International Yoga Day on 21st June 2025 as part of its commitment to promoting holistic well-being among students and staff. The celebration took place at the college premises and witnessed enthusiastic participation from both First-Year and Second-Year MCA students.

The event was graced by Dr. Madhuri Indurkar, President of the Naturopathy Cell, Nagpur Mahanagar Palika, and a renowned Yoga Expert. With her rich expertise and engaging approach, Dr. Indurkar led a rejuvenating yoga session, emphasizing the significance of yoga in maintaining mental clarity, emotional balance, and physical fitness. She shared valuable insights into daily wellness practices, breathing techniques and mindfulness exercises, making the session both educational and enriching.

Interactive Session:
The celebration concluded with a short interactive segment, where students engaged with Dr. Indurkar to better understand the long-term benefits of yoga and naturopathy in managing stress and lifestyle-related challenges. Her responses were insightful and motivational, inspiring students to adopt yoga as an integral part of their daily routine.

The session was organized under the guidance of Dr. Sandhya Dahake, Head of the MCA Department, whose continuous encouragement and organizational efforts contributed to the success of the event. The department also extends its heartfelt gratitude to our Honourable Director, Dr. Vivek Kapur (GHRCEM), for his unwavering support and visionary leadership that inspires such meaningful initiatives.

This impactful and serene celebration stands as a reflection of the department's ongoing dedication to student wellness, character development and nurturing a balanced academic environment.

Report on Blood Donation Camp

On 16th February, GHRCEMN witnessed a meaningful and impactful event as a blood donation drive was organized in celebration of Maharashtra Day. The initiative reflected the institute's commitment to social responsibility and community welfare. The venue was set up early in the day, with medical professionals ensuring all necessary arrangements were in place. As the camp began, students and faculty members showed great enthusiasm, stepping forward to participate in the noble cause. The process was smooth and well-coordinated, starting from registration to medical screening and finally the donation itself. Volunteers played a crucial role in managing the event, assisting donors, and maintaining a positive and encouraging environment. Their efforts ensured that participants felt comfortable and well-guided throughout the process. The drive received an overwhelming response, highlighting the awareness and willingness among young individuals to contribute to society. Each donor was acknowledged for their generosity and provided with refreshments after donation.

The event was not just about collecting blood but also about spreading awareness regarding the importance of regular blood donation. It served as a reminder that a small act of kindness can save multiple lives. The event is coordinated by Dr.Pratik Dhage under guidance of Dr. Vivek Kapur, Campus Director.

Joyful Learning Day - Art, Dance and Body Awareness Program

The Department of MCA, in collaboration with the National Service Scheme (NSS), organized a social outreach activity titled "Little Learners Outreach: Creativity and Awareness Program" at Savitribai Phule Anganwadi on 07th February 2026. The initiative aimed at promoting joyful learning, basic body awareness, and social bonding among young children, along with extending nutritional support as a gesture of care and social responsibility.

The activity was conducted with the objective of encouraging creative expression, physical awareness, and interactive learning among Anganwadi children. The MCA student volunteers actively engaged children through fun-filled activities such as sketching, dancing, and identifying different body parts, making the learning process enjoyable and age-appropriate. These activities helped improve children's creativity, coordination, confidence, and basic cognitive understanding in an interactive manner.

The program witnessed enthusiastic participation from the children, who expressed their joy and excitement through active involvement in drawing and dance sessions. The volunteers ensured a friendly and supportive environment, allowing children to freely express themselves and learn through play-based methods. As a part of the social responsibility initiative, the college team also donated food items to the Anganwadi children, contributing to their nutritional well-being. This gesture reflected the values of compassion, care, and community service among students.
